

Questions for reflection.

(not intended to be a sermon outline)

You are encouraged to use these as part of a study/devotional/reflection time through the coming week.

You are also encouraged to participate in the Explore Class after worship where we will use these as a discussion starter.

- 1. How have you understood the organization and operation of the consistory/church leadership? Did you hear anything different today than you understood before?*
- 2. Describe what you understand the role of elder to be.*
- 3. Describe what you understand the role of deacon to be.*
- 4. How do the roles differ and how are they to work together to complement each other?*
- 5. Why do you think we have different roles and responsibilities instead of one office covering all the duties?*

Questions for reflection.

(not intended to be a sermon outline)

You are encouraged to use these as part of a study/devotional/reflection time through the coming week.

You are also encouraged to participate in the Explore Class after worship where we will use these as a discussion starter.

- 1. How have you understood the organization and operation of the consistory/church leadership? Did you hear anything different today than you understood before?*
- 2. Describe what you understand the role of elder to be.*
- 3. Describe what you understand the role of deacon to be.*
- 4. How do the roles differ and how are they to work together to complement each other?*
- 5. Why do you think we have different roles and responsibilities instead of one office covering all the duties?*

6. Read Acts 6:1-7 and discuss the development of the office of deacon. Why was a different office needed?

7. In light of Acts 6, why are deacons important to the office of elder?

8. Can you describe the difference between an Episcopal, a Presbyterian, and a Congregational form of church governance? What form do you see the Bible describe in the New Testament churches?

6. Read Acts 6:1-7 and discuss the development of the office of deacon. Why was a different office needed?

7. In light of Acts 6, why are deacons important to the office of elder?

8. Can you describe the difference between an Episcopal, a Presbyterian, and a Congregational form of church governance? What form do you see the Bible describe in the New Testament churches?