Today is the first Sunday in Lent, a time of preparation for the celebration of Easter and the resurrection. A Nail will be given to each person to be carried around with you through Lent. It is hoped it will be a reminder of the sacrifice of Jesus for you, and a potential witness as you share why you are carrying it with others.

Pastor Lyle begins a series on what we believe was accomplished on the Cross of Christ using the acronym F.A.I.T.H. (or TULIP) It is hoped that this series will not only inform your understanding of how God saves us, but also raise questions to get you thinking deeper about how God works in our lives.
