

Questions for reflection.

(not intended to be a sermon outline)

You are encouraged to use these as part of a study/devotional/reflection time through the coming week.

You are also encouraged to participate in the Explore Class after worship where we will use these as a discussion starter.

- 1. What questions does today's message raise for you?*
- 2. Give examples of security. What makes you feel secure? How do you define security? What gives you security in your faith?*
- 3. What makes you feel insecure? What does insecurity in your faith do to you? How does insecurity in your faith make you struggle?*
- 4. Do you picture your faith is holding on to God? Or do you picture God holding on to you?*
- 5. What about people who seem to be Christians and then fall away? What might be going on?*

6. How might being "Held by God" allow some Christians to be careless about Christian living? How can a church deal with this?

7. How might Satan try to lie and scare a Christian with the fear or insecurity of losing their salvation because it depended on them? What might that cause in a Christian's thoughts and life?

8. How should a Christian react, or live out the assurance and security we have in Christ? What is the benefit of living faithfully if it isn't to be sure we go to Heaven?

9. Has what we have been talking about in this Lenten series fitting together? What might be your resistance or struggle with it be?
