

Questions for reflection: (not intended to be a sermon outline)

You are encouraged to use these as part of a study/devotional/reflection time through the coming week.

You are also encouraged to participate in the Explore Class after worship where we will use these as a discussion starter. Bring your questions as well for discussion.

1. What questions does today's message raise for you?
2. Do you know what your "spiritual gift(s)" is? How did you discern this? What does it mean to you to know this? What is helpful in knowing others gifts?
3. How important is it to you to feel you "belong" somewhere?
4. How important is it to you to feel you contribute to something important? That you have a value and are leaving a lasting value from your efforts in life?
5. How would you describe God's "system" of organizing his family in the church? Do you see it differently? What do you value or see as wise about how God distributes spiritual gifts?

6. *What happens that we don't naturally honor each other in love as 1 Cor. 13 says?
Why is that so hard at times?*

7. How can we better coordinate the gifts God gives us at FRC?

8. How can we let others know who we are and what we are doing here at FRC?

These sentences (read carefully) actually appeared in church bulletins or were announced at church services:

The Fasting and Prayer Conference includes meal.

Ladies, don't forget the rummage sale. It's a chance to get rid of those things not worth keeping around the house. Bring your husbands.

*The sermon this morning: 'Jesus Walks on the Water.'
The sermon tonight: 'Searching for Jesus.'*

For those of you who have children and don't know it, we have a nursery downstairs.
