Next Sunday: Be sure to join us as we celebrate and welcome new members into the FRC family!

Monday night bible study will meet September 24, 6:30 p.m. at the parsonage. Work on pages 31-51 of "Looking for Lovely" book. It's not too late to join us!

The Tuesday ladies study will begin October 16, at 1:00 p.m. at the parsonage. We'll be studying "The Girl's Still Got It", a study on the book of Ruth. Note the time change this year. Please let Amy Z. know if you'll be joining us and wanting me to get a book for you.

Save the Date: September 30th – Kayak (or canoe) the Kish!

FRC is planning an afternoon trip to Kayak/Canoe the beautiful Kishwaukee River. We'll plan to carpool and leave FRC after the morning worship service. You're encouraged to pack a lunch, or drive-through a fast food restaurant of your choice on our way to Rockford. Ideally, we can each find a kayak/canoe that can be borrowed from a friend, family, or neighbor. Or, if you can't locate one, rental reservations are available. To help us plan transportation of people and gear, please sign-up on the bulletin board if you'd like to go on this 3-hour float trip.

An Opportunity to Express Yourself: The Worship Team would like everyone's (all ages) help to personalize our weekly bulletin covers. We encourage you to draw a picture, provide a photo, share a favorite Bible verse, or anything that represents the beauty of God's Love and Grace. Please include a short caption of what it represents and/or why it's important to you. Your bulletin cover may be submitted anytime to Janese or Dan. Thanks and have fun!
