

Questions for reflection: (not intended to be a sermon outline)

You are encouraged to use these as part of a study/devotional/reflection time through the coming week.

You are also encouraged to participate in the Explore Class after worship where we will use these as a discussion starter. Bring your questions as well for discussion.

1. What images come to mind when you hear about demons and spiritual warfare? Are these thoughts biblical?
2. List some things that distract us from seeing the spiritual battles all around us.
3. Where is the sin of pride especially prevalent in our culture today?
4. In what different ways does pride come out in us? Where does it surprise you?
5. Where have you seen or experienced the effects of pride?

Questions for reflection: (not intended to be a sermon outline)

You are encouraged to use these as part of a study/devotional/reflection time through the coming week.

You are also encouraged to participate in the Explore Class after worship where we will use these as a discussion starter. Bring your questions as well for discussion.

1. What images come to mind when you hear about demons and spiritual warfare? Are these thoughts biblical?
2. List some things that distract us from seeing the spiritual battles all around us.
3. Where is the sin of pride especially prevalent in our culture today?
4. In what different ways does pride come out in us? Where does it surprise you?
5. Where have you seen or experienced the effects of pride?

6. Why is it so tempting to hold on to some of the glory for ourselves? Why is that a problem?

7. What examples are shown in the Bible about pride affecting people and situations?

8. Do you believe there will be a reward for you in heaven? Do you think it is worth waiting for and not seeking reward here and now?

9. Of Satan's three temptations in this passage, which one do you struggle with the most? (Self-gratification, or trusting myself more than God; Self-protection-straying from God's protective care through obedience; Self-Exaltation-pride/holding on to some of the glory instead of giving it all to God.)

6. Why is it so tempting to hold on to some of the glory for ourselves? Why is that a problem?

7. What examples are shown in the Bible about pride affecting people and situations?

8. Do you believe there will be a reward for you in heaven? Do you think it is worth waiting for and not seeking reward here and now?

9. Of Satan's three temptations in this passage, which one do you struggle with the most? (Self-gratification, or trusting myself more than God; Self-protection-straying from God's protective care through obedience; Self-Exaltation-pride/holding on to some of the glory instead of giving it all to God.)