

My Life and Legacy Information Form

October, 2018

As part of the Legacy sermon series, you are encouraged to reflect on your life, and through this, grow in understanding of yourself, your faith, your life direction, the impact you are making and leaving, and to live more confidently because of this exercise.

These are very personal and challenging questions, but that is what makes them so important and powerful.

You are encouraged to ponder these questions, perhaps talk them over with loved ones, answer all you can or desire to, and return this form to the pastor.

Some questions are on basic preferences to inform loved ones, and some focus on your personal faith journey and relationships.

All forms are treated confidentially. These forms have proven a wonderful benefit to bring focus and direction in life, as well as blessing and comfort to others when the pastor and family have had this resource when celebrating a loved one's life. You are encouraged to make or request a copy for yourself or loved ones.
