Kid's Fellowship Leader

Ange ~ March 31... Joyce McPhillips ~ April 7... Palm Sunday ~ April 14

The adult Explore class meets in the Upper Room after the worship service. All are invited to continue the conversation around the topic of today's message.

Question of the Week for Adult Explore Class: Am I a friend of God, or a friend of the world?

Today is the fourth Sunday of Lent, the season of preparation for celebrating Easter and the Resurrection of our Lord. If you have not received your nail to carry with you through the Lenten season, extra nails are in the baskets on the tables. You are encouraged to bring your nail back to pound into the cross at our Maundy Thursday service April 18th. Carry more than one nail with you so you can pass one on to someone with a brief explanation, and invitation to worship with us! Pray for who God might open an opportunity for you to converse with and give a nail to.

Pray for someone by name as God lays it upon your heart and mind.

Each week in Lent we will take a few minutes to share how we are seeing God open doors to grow in discipleship as we seek to "take on" an action. You are encouraged to share what you are praying for, or taking on, with the FRC family to encourage others in their steps of faith.

From Heidelberg Catechism #9-11:

Q. But does not God do man an injustice by requiring in his law what man cannot do?

A. No, for God so created man that he was able to do it. But man, at the instigation of the devil, in deliberate disobedience robbed himself and all his descendants of these gifts.

Q. Will God allow such disobedience and apostasy to go unpunished?

A. Certainly not. He is terribly displeased with our original sin as well as our actual sins. Therefore he will punish them by a just judgment both now and eternally, as he has declared. "Cursed is everyone who does not continue to do everything written in the Book of the Law" (Gal 3:10)

Q. But is God not also merciful?

A. God is indeed merciful, but his is also just. His justice requires that sin committed against the most high majesty of God also be punished with the most severe, that is, with everlasting punishment of body and soul.
