From Heidelberg Catechism #110 and #111:

Q. What does God forbid in the eight commandment? (“Thou shall not steal.”)

A. God forbids not only outright theft and robbery-but also such wicked schemes and devices as false weights and measures, deceptive merchandising, counterfeit money, and usury; we must not defraud our neighbor in any way, whether by force or by show of right. In addition, God forbids all greed and all abuse or squandering of his gifts.

Q. What does God require of you in this commandment?

A. I must promote my neighbor’s good wherever I can and may deal with him as I would like others to deal with me, and work faithfully so that I may be able to give to those in need.

May Library News

Welcome to the second novel in the Heart of Alaska Series, Out of the Ashes by Tracie Peterson and Kimberley Woodhouse. We return to Curry, Alaska, in the 1920’s at the Curry Hotel and Mt. Denali. Meet Katherine DeMarchis, Collete and Jean-Michel Langeleir, three broken people who, like us today, experience pain in various forms that only God can help us endure and overcome. But that’s the good part, God is there with us amidst all the junk. If you missed the first book, In the Shadow of Denali, we also have that one available to check out.
